

GSSNV 2020 Votes for Women Centennial Patch Program

complete the 3 steps by December 2020. Challenge yourself to Discover, Connect and Take Action while learning about the history of how women fought for the right to vote!

Patches are available for purchase at the GSSNV Retail Shop once the 3 steps have been completed. To qualify, please complete the patch program questionnaire at the link below and contact the GSSNV Shop to purchase the patch. <https://app.smartsheet.com/b/form/5092d194c05b489bb672ce0c3ce87fd7>

Step 1-Discover

Discover the history of the Women's Rights Movement. First, learn about the women's suffrage movement in the United States of American and then focus on one of the subjects below:

- Research the history of the movement in Nevada
- Learn about the struggles of African-American suffragettes and activists
- Find out who these suffragettes are: Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Sojourner Truth, Lucretia Mott, Mabel Ping-Hua Lee, Susan B Anthony, Ida B Wells, Marie Louise Bottineau Baldwin
- Read and understand the 19th Amendment to the Constitution at Kahn Academy (khanacademy.org)

Step 2-Connect

Connect to the suffragette movement by completing at least one activity, use an idea below or create your own:

- Form a visual timeline of important events and people
- Make a "Votes for Women" protest sign, sash and button in the style and colors used by suffragettes
- Create a suffragette presentation board
- Make a PowerPoint presentation
- Design a shoebox diorama
- Visit a women's history museum exhibit, in person or virtually
- Write and perform a skit about women's suffrage

Step 3-Take Action

Complete the three steps below to take action on what you have learned!

- Talk to a woman in your life about voting and find out why it's important to them
- Think about why voting is important to you personally
- Make a commitment to yourself to vote when you are an adult
