To serve God* and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the Girl Scout Law.

The Girl Scout Law

I will do my best to be honest and fair,
friendly and helpful,
considerate and caring,
courageous and strong,
and responsible for what I say and do,
and to respect myself and others,
respect authority,
use resources wisely,
make the world a better place,
and be a sister to every Girl Scout.

Our Mission

Girl Scouting builds girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place.

You—A Girl Scout Leader!

Being a Girl Scout leader is an incredible journey along which you’ll shape the future by working with girls today. With your guidance, encouragement, and go-getting spirit, your Girl Scouts will be ready to embark on a lifetime of leadership, success, and adventure. And along the way, you’ll hone your own leadership style and discover that you’ll achieve more than you thought possible!

In Girl Scouting, leadership is about more than “being in charge” or having a title; it’s recognizing that you’re part of a team and understanding that team’s needs and interests.

Leadership is teaching girls:

- That they can do and be anything!
- That they are decision-makers and should own their decisions
- How to live the Girl Scout Law by modeling it for them

As a leader, see yourself as a coach who:

- Guides and instructs, not as a teacher providing rote lessons and activities
- Advises and discusses
- Ensures each girl can carry out her responsibilities within the troop
- Encourages girls to build their skills and their ethics
- Assigns more responsibilities to the girls as they grow and develop

It’s important to remember that:

- You can’t expect to know everything the girls want to learn
- You’ll explore and learn alongside your girls and grow your confidence in the process
- You’re not expected to know everything about Girl Scouting, but you should know where to go for information—and to ask for help when you need it
Let’s Get Started!

Managing Your Member Experience Online
After your background check is completed and you’re approved to serve as a volunteer, you’ll receive an email prompting you to log into MyGS, your Girl Scout member community. MyGS allows you to manage your member experience online.

On the Troop tab in MyGS, you can see any girls and adults who have signed up for your troop and add new girls to your troop—and the Troop Opportunity Catalog allows you as the troop leader to display available openings in your troop for girls and/or volunteers. You can add your troop to the opportunity catalog by emailing customerservice@girlscoutsnv.org or speaking to a Member Support Specialist at (702) 385-3677.

The Girl Scout Leadership Experience

What makes Girl Scouts truly unique? Everything is designed especially for, and is tested by, girls! Our program centers around our research-backed Girl Scout Leadership Experience—that is, what girls do and how they do it. Activities are girl-led, which gives girls opportunities to explore leadership roles and “learn by doing” in a cooperative-learning environment.

In Girl Scouts, girls will:

Discover: Every activity girls tackle in Girl Scouts helps them discover who they are, what they care about, and what their talents are.

Connect: Girls collaborate with and learn from other people and expand their horizons. This helps them care about and inspire others locally and globally.

Take Action: As girls connect with and show care for others, they become eager to take action to make the world a better place.

So what does this mean for your troop? Through Girl Scouting, your girls will develop a strong sense of self, demonstrate positive values, seek challenges, solve significant problems in her community, and establish healthy relationships. These aren’t just good qualities—they’re leadership skills that will last a lifetime!

What is the Girl Scout Program?

No matter what excites your girls, they’ll find engaging and fun activities in the four areas that make up the core of the Girl Scout program:

STEAM
Computer science, engineering, robotics, outdoor STEM, and more

OUTDOORS
Adventure and skill building, from the backyard to the backcountry, including through camping experiences for all ages

LIFE SKILLS
Civic engagement, healthy living, global citizenship, communication skills—to name a few

ENTREPRENEURSHIP
The Girl Scout Cookie Program—the largest girl-led entrepreneurial program in the world—teaches goal setting, decision making, money management, business ethics, and people skills

Whether they complete Girl Scout Leadership Journeys, earn badges, unleash their inner entrepreneur through the Girl Scout Cookie Program, pack for their first hike, change the world through “Take Action” projects, or any combination of these activities, at Girl Scouts, every girl has countless ways to explore our four program areas and hone the skills they’ll need to power a lifetime of success—whatever that looks like for them.

Explore the many exciting possibilities with the Award and Badge Explorer at https://www.girlscouts.org/en/our-program/badges/badge_explorer.html.
Where Girl Scouts Can Take Your Girls

As your girls progress through Girl Scouts, they’ll learn to take the reins and make their Girl Scout experiences their own—it’s what being girl-led is all about! And as a leader, you’ll encourage them to dream big and challenge themselves as they take their newfound passions to the next level.

While program elements—like outdoor expeditions and entrepreneurial ventures—align across all grade levels, Girl Scout Daisies and Brownies won’t be doing the same activities as seasoned Seniors and Ambassadors. But by building on the knowledge and skills they gain year after year, your girls’ confidence will grow exponentially and they’ll be eager to take those next steps.

So what can you expect as they grow through each level of Girl Scouting?

Girl Scout Daisies sparkle with that first-time newness in everything they do. They go on trips, learn about nature and science, and explore the arts and their communities—and so much more. Daisies can also earn learning petals.

Girl Scout Brownies work together as they earn badges and explore their communities. Friendship, fun, and age-appropriate activities begin at the Girl Scout Brownie meeting and move out to the community and the wider world. While earning badges, Brownies build skills, learn hobbies, and have fun!

Girl Scout Juniors are big-idea thinkers. They’re explorers at camp and product designers when they earn their Innovation and Storytelling badges, or even their Bronze Award. Every day, they wake up ready to play a new role.

Girl Scout Cadettes chart their own courses and let their curiosity and imagination lead the way. They learn about the power of being a good friend, gain confidence by mentoring younger girls, and can earn their Silver Award.

Girl Scout Seniors are ready to take the world by storm, and Girl Scouts gives them countless ways to do it. Their experiences shape their world, while giving them a safe space to be themselves and explore their interests. Seniors can earn their Gold Award and change the world in a tangible, lasting way.

Girl Scout Ambassadors know that small acts produce big change. While they get ready for life beyond high school, Girl Scouts helps them take flight. They can also earn their Gold Award and drive lasting impact in their communities.

All of the skills and experiences girls gain throughout their time in Girl Scouts set them up for special recognition through the Bronze, Silver, and Gold Awards. Through their award projects, your girls will tackle issues close to their hearts and make a real difference—and if they decide to pursue their Gold Award, they’ll also be eligible for unique college scholarships and open doors to promising career opportunities. The longer your girls are in Girl Scouts, the brighter their futures will be—and they’ll have you to thank for it!
What Makes a Successful Troop Experience?

No matter where your girls live, a universal Girl Scout experience connects them to their Girl Scout sisters around the country. And there are so many ways to make sure your girls get the full Girl Scout experience in a way that excites and inspires them!

You can count on Girl Scouts to provide...

- Supportive Adult Mentors
- Cooperative, Hands-On Learning
- Girl-Led Activities
- Rigorous Safety Standards
- All-Girl Spaces
- Tools for Family Involvement

Throughout their troop year, you’ll support your girls as they...

- Attend Regular Meetings
- Earn Badges & Girl Scout Awards
- Complete Take Action Projects
- Participate in the Cookie and Product Sale Programs
- Learn Girl Scout Traditions
- Get Outdoors
- Go on Field Trips
Guiding Your Troop Experience

In leading a new troop, you’ll want to guide the structure and experiences of your troop—from how and when meetings are held to how the troop communicates, and from steering girl-led activities to setting financial expectations. You’ll make these decisions collaboratively with your volunteer team or co-leader, as well as with input from the girls and their parents/guardians.

Use these questions to guide your conversation with troop volunteers or co-leader before discussing the topics with parents and guardians.

Your Troop Volunteer Team

It takes a village to lift up the next generation of leaders; you don’t have to embark on your troop leader journey alone! Set the stage for a successful troop year by tapping into the people resources already at your fingertips: parents, guardians and other family members, friends, and members of the community have their own unique strengths and can provide troops with time, experience, and ideas—so get them involved from the very beginning as part of your troop volunteer team!

Some members of your volunteer team might play more active roles than others—and that’s OK! One parent/guardian in your troop might step up as a dedicated troop treasurer, while others might volunteer to chaperone a field trip. Some roles, especially those that involve handling troop funds and supervising girls, require additional registration and approval. Consult the GSSNV Membership Handbook for more details on trainings required for troop roles. Be sure those volunteers get signed up before they jump into the fun at www.girlscoutsnv.org/volunteer!
Family Connections: The Key Ingredient to Successful Girl Scout Troops!

Girl Scouting provides the best opportunities for girls when families step up and play an active part in the troop. Without meaningful support from parents/guardians, it’s difficult for a troop to be all it can be. Plus, girls feel a special sense of pride when their families take part and show interest in the things they are doing!

Kick the Year Off Right With a Parents and Guardians Meeting

A parent and guardian meeting should be the first meeting you hold to start each troop year—it sets up both new and returning troops for success!

Why? Because it helps:

- Families understand what Girl Scouting can do for their girl
- Families and leaders identify ways they will work as a team to support the troop
- Families and leaders agree about what the troop pays for and what families pay for individually
- You fill key troop positions—you never know which parent will make an awesome assistant leader or troop cookie manager
- Families know how the troop will communicate things like upcoming events or schedule changes
- Families learn about uniforms, books, and other important basics

Outlining clear expectations, building a team, and engaging families in the Girl Scout experience is a great way to start off on the right foot. When families are involved, leaders have support, and when the troop has a plan, girls benefit!

Check out our step-by-step guide and parent meeting outline in the Volunteer Toolkit. (Remember, you can access the Volunteer Toolkit via MyGS!) This hour-long meeting will make all the difference in the year ahead: 100% of troops with the most satisfied parents/guardians and troop leaders report they hold parent meetings. You’ll also want to hold an additional family meeting ahead of cookie season to introduce parents and guardians to the program and how they can pitch in.

And remember to make family part of the formula! While Girl Scout programming is always focused on the girls themselves, it’s important and helpful to open a few events to their families throughout the year. Inviting a whole crew to celebrate her accomplishments in Girl Scouting—whether at a holiday open house, a bridging ceremony, or a fun “reverse meeting” where girls take on the role of leader and guide the adults, including parents / guardians, through an activity—will help parents/guardians better understand the value of Girl Scouts and be more likely to invest their time and talents with the troop.

That said, there’s no need to wait for one of these special events to engage parents/guardians in their Girl Scouts’ troop lives. Keep communication lines open throughout the year—whether it’s through your troop’s social media page, personal emails, or in-person chats—to keep parents/guardians in the loop on what the girls are doing and learning during each meeting, and encourage them to let their daughters “be the expert” at home, by, for example, explaining or teaching a new skill she’s learned to the rest of the family.
Let’s Go—Your First Troop Meeting!

Your first troop meeting is a great chance to get to know the girls and brainstorm all the exciting things they want to do in the year to come. If you’re feeling a little nervous about leading troop meetings and experiences with your girls, that’s OK! Just remember that:

It doesn’t need to be perfect. Did an activity run over time? Or maybe a field trip didn’t go according to plan? Take a deep breath, roll with the changes, and have fun! The girls aren’t expecting perfection from you: your time, attention, and guidance are the best part of your leadership.

Learn with your girls. Keeping activities girl-led also means that at some point, the girls will want to earn a badge or complete a project in a subject unfamiliar to you. But don’t let that hold you back! Be open with the girls when you don’t know something and become their partner in learning more. You’ll show them that learning is a lifelong process and that with an open mind, they can overcome any challenges that come their way.

Six Elements of a Great Troop Meeting
The only requirement for your meeting? That your girls are laughing, smiling, and having a fun time! That being said, many troop leaders use this basic structure for their meetings:

1. Ramp up. Plan activities for the girls on arrival at the meeting so they have something to do until the meeting begins. This could be as simple as coloring pages, journaling, or talking with one another. (5 minutes)

2. Opening. Each troop decides how to open its meetings—most begin with the Girl Scout Promise and Law, a simple flag ceremony, song, game, story, or other activity designed by the girls. (5–10 minutes)

3. Troop business. Collect dues and make announcements, or plan an upcoming event or trip while families are present. (5 minutes)

4. Let the fun begin. Use the meeting plans found in the Volunteer Toolkit! Activities are already designed to fit easily into this part of your meeting as you help your troop earn badges and complete Journeys. (30–45 minutes)

5. Clean up. Because Girl Scouts should always leave a place cleaner than they found it! (5 minutes)

6. Closing. Just like the opening, each troop can decide how to close—with a song, a game, a story, or pretty much anything else! (5–10 minutes)

First meeting checklist:

1. Cover the basics. Review the details about when and where the meeting will take place and make sure parents/guardians are aware.

2. Get ready. Use the Volunteer Toolkit to verify your troop roster and email parents/guardians. This might be a great time to ask them to provide you with any needed items, such as health history forms, uniform order forms, and troop dues.

3. Know the agenda. Refer to our “Six Elements of a Troop Meeting” list and the Volunteer Toolkit sample meeting agenda.

4. Review and practice your agenda. You’ll feel calmer during the actual meeting and ready to make adjustments as needed.

5. Prepare for fun! When the girls and parents/guardians see that you’re prepared for the meeting and ready to have a great time, they’ll follow your lead!
Keeping Girls Safe

Understanding How Many Volunteers You Need

From camping weekends to cookie booths, adult volunteers must always be present to ensure their girls have fun and stay safe, no matter their grade level.

Planning Safe Activities

When preparing for any activity with girls, check Girl Scouts’ Safety Activity Checkpoints or required guidelines on where to do the activity, how to include girls with disabilities, where to find both basic and specialized gear for the activity, and the specific steps to follow on the day of the activity. Safety Activity Checkpoints will also note if a first-aider is required.

If a safety activity checkpoint doesn't exist for an activity you and your girls are interested in, contact Customer Service at customerservice@girlscoutsnv.org before making any definite plans.

What to Do in an Emergency

Although we all hope the worst never happens, you should know and follow our council’s procedures for handling emergency incidents. Remember, at the scene of an incident, safety is your first priority. Provide care for the injured person and/or obtain medical assistance, then immediately report the emergency to the GSSNV emergency number, (702) 971-1402.

Make sure a general first-aid kit is available at your meeting place and accompanies girls on any activity. You may need to provide the kit if one is not already available at your meeting location. You must always have on hand the names and telephone numbers of our council office, parents/guardians of your girls, and emergency services such as the police, fire department, and hospital.
Funding the Fun

Your girls probably have some big ideas about what they want to do in Girl Scouts—and that’s awesome! As a troop leader, you’ll coach them as they learn to earn and manage troop funds. But where do you start?

Troop activities are powered in two main ways:

- Troop dues: Many troops decide to collect troop dues to help provide startup funds for troop activities and supplies. These could range from a few dollars per meeting to a lump sum for the entire school year. It’s completely up to each troop to decide what works best for them to support the activities they want to do.

- Money-earning activities: The fall product and cookie programs are the primary money-earning activities for a troop—and they’re a hands-on way for girls to learn money management skills that will serve them for the rest of their lives. You’ll learn the ins-and-outs of these programs in a separate training.

We know you have more questions about troop finances, and we’ve got answers! Check out the “Finance” section of Volunteer Essentials and the GSSNV Membership Handbook for the details you’ll need to keep troop business running smoothly.

Money FAQs

Our three most frequently asked about troop finance topics:

- Opening a bank account: New troops will need to set up a bank account to collect dues, pay for troop supplies and activities, and collect product sales revenue. The GSSNV Membership Handbook breaks down the process for you.

- Scholarships: Finances shouldn’t stand in the way of a Girl Scout’s participation. Any girl needing a scholarship for membership can request it as part of the online member registration process. Other scholarships available for uniform components, events, and camps, and can be requested. www.girlscoutsnv.org/scholarships

- Tax exemption: Councils are 501(c)(3) nonprofits, so take advantage of your council’s tax-exempt form when purchasing supplies and materials for Girl Scout troop use. www.girlscoutsnv.org/forms
